LITTLE ROACHES

Na je tachtigste After the age of 80

Synopsis

A son walks with his elderly father in the valley where the beeches grow. Looking for the tree in which the father once carved a heart in the bark. The father does not seem to remember much anymore, but he will never forget that tree. And now it's time to carve a new name. He is in love again. On Nedelina from the nursing home.

A story about aging, letting go and finding love again, written by novelist Ricus van de Coevering. With powerful illustrations by debuting illustrator Michelle Wagenaar.
