

The harvest moon shines tonight.

An illustration of a farm scene. In the foreground on the left, a large green corn plant with yellow kernels is prominent. A white wooden fence runs across the middle ground. In the background, a large wooden barn with a gambrel roof is visible. A person is climbing a ladder against the side of the barn. Two other people are standing near the base of the ladder, one carrying a large bundle of corn cobs on their back. The sky is a deep blue, and the trees in the background are in autumn colors of red, orange, and yellow.

Everyone is still at work on Apple Hill Farm.

The corn is ripe since late summer and the men and boys carry the last of it in burlap bags to the corn crib.

Around midnight,
one weary farmer crosses
the road and walks slowly toward his house.
He will try to sleep...

though the harvest moon
still shines brightly.
