

1. The child chewer Author: Koos Meinders & Harrie Jekkers (famous dutch writers - rights former books sold to several country's) Illustrator: Senne Trip Theme: being afraid About: small story (rhyming) about a childeater (and a brave girl)
2. The day that doesn't exist Author: Anna Woltz (famous dutch writer – books of her were made into movies) Illustrator: Jaime Jacob Theme: family About: everybody's at school is celebrating mothers day. But what if you don't have one. You can just make your own special day!
3. A new brother Author: Gideon Samson (Gideon and Joren won several prizes for a book (Zeb.) they made together) Illustrator: Joren Joshua Theme: birth About: a family thats welcoming a babysister. Or brother. They can vote about it, but will mom listen?
4. Faith Author: Diet Groothuis Illustrator: Jeska Versteegen (rights former books sold to several country's) Theme: just because About: a kitten that's adopted into a new home. But is it a she or a he?
5. Happy Birthday Authors: Diet Groothuis, Rudy Kousbroek, Sjoerd Kuyper, Kate Schlingemann & Edward van de Vendel (all famous dutch poets) Illustrator: Iris Deppe (price winning illustrator) Thema: birthday About: poems about birthdays
1. How lost can something be? Author: Geert de Kockere, Hans Hagen, Erik van Os, Jaap Robben & Bette Westera (all famous dutch and Belgium poets) Theme: condolence Illustrator: Yoko Heiligers (award winning illustrater) About: poems about death, to send as condolence to kids
2. Once upon a time... Author: J. T. Heins Illustrator: Christina Budimir About: sleep well – a small bedtime story about fairytales
6. Poor, poor me Authors: Eva Gerlach, Ted van Lieshout, Kate Schlingemann & Kees Spiering (all famous dutch poets) Illustrator: Jan van Doornspeek Theme: get well soon About: poems about being sick (in a hospital)

--	--